PHH Monthly News & Updates

Project Helping Hands just finished up another busy month as we prepare to enter the holiday season. We launched and welcomed home another successful deployment into Peru, marking our 6th into the area since 2015. We are also gearing up for the multiple deployments we have in 2018, many of which are still actively seeking volunteers!

PHH has exciting updates on the horizon for the holiday season and thanks you for your continued participation and support in our organization. Read below to get full updates on everything else PHH has been up to this past month including our GuideStar update, new merchandise inventory and more.

Please visit our website to make a donation or learn more about all of our current medical team deployments. We thank you all for your continued support of our shared mission.

Deployment Update

Our Peru team led by first time leader Mary Perryman just recently arrived home. The team enjoyed a successful 2 week deployment with the extension trip making the team's entire time in Peru from Nov. 4th- Nov. 20th.

Despite battling the elements in the form of some rainy weather, the team was able to treat 1107 total patients and administered 2440 different procedures. They did this by setting up 7 different clinics in 5 unique villages throughout the course of their time there, hiking through the mountains in between to reach their new destinations.

Although Mary Perryman was a first time leader, she is a veteran PHH volunteer. She has been on 5 different deployment teams with us in the past 5 years. When asked about her experience leading a team, Mary had this to say "it was a very enlightening experience leading a diverse group of nurses. The overall experience and taking care of the people in the mountains without medical care was very humbling." PHH is very proud of what the entire Peru deployment team was able to accomplish this past month and thanks the volunteers for their great effort.

Upcoming Deployments

Project Helping Hands needs you for our upcoming deployments!

Our volunteer base has done a great job of filling teams lately. Our March 2018 Nepal team is already full and our February 2018 Cambodia team is filling up quickly.

Our April 2018 deployment teams, specifically our Philippines and Peru teams are in need of volunteers. Help these teams today by volunteering or helping spread our message. These deployments are well established, with PHH launching over 5 teams into both areas within the past few years. Help build on the work we've done in these regions and volunteer for a team today.
